

Berlin Settlement May Be Coming From Secret Talks

West Also Makes Bid To Settle Austrian Treaty

Paris, June 13—(AP)—A partial settlement to bring a truce to east-west strife in Berlin appeared tonight to be growing out of secret Big Four talks.

The west also bid for a settlement on an Austrian treaty in a drive to end the deadlocked council of foreign minister sessions with at least some successes.

Sources previously proved reliable said the Big Four were making progress toward an accord on the Berlin matter, and that Russia was backing down completely from her position on Austria. American sources were less optimistic on Austria, however.

And Meetings By Friday
These sources said it was hoped to end the Paris meetings by Friday, and there was talk of another meeting in New York in September.

The western powers were reported awaiting a reply from the Kremlin on their proposals on Berlin and Austria.

They made their effort for a patchwork accord on Berlin after all hope was abandoned of an overall settlement to end the cold war in Germany.

It would be a "live and let live" agreement which would not touch the main points of disagreement. There still would be a divided Germany, Berlin would still have two administrations, two kinds of money and two of nearly everything else.

But the arrangement would allow the two political camps to do business with each other, and it might allow a lessening of tension. Put Cards On Table

Authoritative sources said the west put its cards on the table at two secret meetings Saturday and Sunday.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was said to have made the first move in a two-hour meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky Saturday. He asked Vishinsky to present his minimum demand. It was reported Vishinsky said Russia wanted increased trade for her zone with west Germany and a single east mark currency for all Berlin.

Bevin was quoted as saying Russia's wishes on trade could be arranged in return for Soviet guarantees in writing of free access to Berlin from the western zones.

He said the western powers already have turned down the single currency idea in a split city but something might be worked out by fixing an exchange rate between the east and west mark.

Vishinsky was not prepared to make the written guarantee on access to Berlin. But it was understood the suggestions were forwarded to Moscow for consideration.

One competent source said tonight it was doubtful if Moscow would give written guarantees but might give a "general statement of principles."

Des Moines Transit Workers Vote To 'Interrupt' Strike

Des Moines, June 13—(P)—Streetcar and bus operators of Des Moines city lines voted today to "interrupt" their two-day strike.

The union agreed to return to work immediately at a meeting this afternoon. It also authorized its executive board to resume the strike "at will." Max Putnam, union attorney said.

Putnam said the union agreed to take the advice of Gov. William S. Beardsley met with union and company representatives in an unsuccessful last-minute meeting last Saturday night.

The first pinch of the strike was felt today when 60,000 persons who daily ride the facilities of the Des Moines Railway Co. to work and shop in this city of 180,000 sought various means of getting downtown.

The 587 members of Local 441, Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees (AFL) went on strike at 12:01 a.m. yesterday. Their action ended public transportation facilities in Iowa's capital city.

Military Prisoners Escape Air Base

Indianapolis, June 13—(P)—Officers at the nearby Benjamin Harrison air base reported today three military prisoners had slugged a guard and escaped in a ton and a half army truck.

Officers said one of them is considered dangerous. Officers said the fugitives are Edwin Fields, Jr., 20, Cortland (Jackson county), Ind.; Pvt. French S. Miller, Des Moines, Ia.; and Pvt. Robert N. Manuell, St. Paul, Minn. All were being held for being absent without leave.

They were last seen headed toward Indianapolis.

Contempt Convictions Of 2 Writers Upheld By Court

Washington, June 13—(P)—The conviction of two movie writers for contempt of congress was upheld today by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The court ruled that a committee of congress has the right to demand that a witness state whether he is a communist.

For screen writers Dalton Trumbo and Howard Lawson, the decision was the last stop before the supreme court—and a possible year in jail. Now they are free on bond.

They were convicted in district court here last year of contempt for refusing to tell the House Un-American Activities committee whether either was or had been a member of the communist party.

Eight other Hollywood figures were indicted on similar charges. Trial of their cases has been held up pending the outcome of the appeals taken by Trumbo and Lawson.

U.S. Winds Up Case Against Judith Coplon

Washington, June 13—(P)—The government wound up its case in the seven-weeks-out espionage trial of Judith Coplon today and the defense announced it will seek to bring an atomic scientist and Hollywood movie stars to the witness stand.

Defense Counsel Archibald Palmer said he would seek to subpoena Dr. Edward U. Condon to tell the jury that "it's just a bunch of nonsense about Russia stealing the atom bomb."

Demo Leaders Vote To Back Truman's New Farm Program

Des Moines, June 13—(P)—A conference of Democratic leaders from 16 midwestern states voted unanimously today to endorse the Truman administration's new farm program and to seek election of a congress in 1950 committed to its passage.

This action came after Truman leaders suggested that the present congress continue existing wartime farm programs pending a voter test of the administration's farm proposal.

"We accept the challenge of the Republican leadership," said a resolution, "to make the farm programs offered by the two parties a major issue of the election campaign of 1950 in the midwest."

The conference resolution—like secretary of agriculture Charles F. Brannan, a major speaker at the sessions—condemned the so-called Aiken long-range farm program of the Republican 80th congress as inadequate protection to rural prosperity.

Vice President Barkley, addressing a meeting crowd estimated by leaders at 2,500, pleaded for unity of labor and agriculture on economic problems affecting both.

Senate Kills Plan To Let People Vote On Sales Tax Hike

Springfield, Ill., June 13—(P)—The Illinois Senate today rejected a proposal to let the people vote on increasing the sales tax to finance new state buildings.

Eight senators voted for the plan and 11 against it, mostly sat affirmative votes were required for passage.

Senator Roland V. Libonati (D-Chicago) urged approval of his bill as an answer to insistent demands for more construction money to provide extra space at crowded mental hospitals and higher education institutions.

His bill would have put up to a referendum at the 1950 general election the question of a bond issue to pay for the proposed buildings.

Under the proposition, the bonds would be retired by raising the present two per cent state sales levy of three cents. After the bonds were retired, the sales tax would revert to two cents.

Libonati kept his bill technically alive by postponing consideration after the roll call was completed but before the results was announced.

Escapes Injuries

Chicago, June 13—(P)—Fifteen-month-old Mary Lou Van Dorn fell from the fifth floor of her home to a dirt alley below today. Attendants at the Women and Children's hospital said she apparently was not seriously injured.

Nine Atomic Scientists Back Lilienthal's Work

Washington, June 13—(P)—Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, who has helped develop the A-bomb, testified today that the Atomic Energy commission has "sweated blood" to safeguard the nation's atomic secrets.

"And it has come up with about as good an answer as is obtainable," the scientist told a Senate-House investigating committee.

Joining in the defense of AEC Chairman David E. Lilienthal, the AEC's nine-man scientific advisory committee praised Lilienthal's regime as having produced "a sound and forward-looking program."

A statement from the nine scientists, read by Dr. Oppenheimer said in part:

"Better weapons have been developed and tested. The improvement which has been achieved during the commission's administration appears to us to offer clear proof of competence and devotion to duty by the commission."

The Senate-House group is conducting hearings on charges by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) that Lilienthal is responsible for "incredible mismanagement" of the atomic program.

Late today, after a two-hour session behind closed doors, the joint committee voted to let Hickenlooper present his charge at an open session Wednesday that "mismanagement" is involved in the highly secret plant at Hanford, Wash.

A project there was originally estimated to cost $6,255,000. Now the AEC says it will run to nearly $25,000,000.

No session, either open or closed, will be held tomorrow.

Moline Deere Co. Settlement Near Says Union Officer

East Moline, Ill., June 13—(P)—A CIO United Auto Workers officer said today "if negotiations go tomorrow as well as they did today, chances are we will sign" a contract with Deere and Company.

Sam Grogg, president of the UAW local at the Union Malleable Iron Works of the Farm Equipment Firm, made the comment after a contract talk with the company.

The local is the lone holdout of unions in seven Deere and Company plants which have signed new contracts.

About 625 production workers walked off their jobs Friday at the plant here. Grogg said the workers walked out because a veteran woman employee had been given a disciplinary three-day layoff for complaining her work was too heavy.

Thirty of the women's fellow workers walked out in protest and the company then gave the department of 70 workers a three-day disciplinary layoff, Grogg said. The mass walkout followed.

Grogg said today the walkout would continue until Wednesday. The union at the plant here previously had rejected the new offer. The old contract expired May 6.

Murray Says Steel Workers Will Seek Higher Pay Scale

Chicago, June 13—(P)—CIO President Philip Murray said today his steelworkers union will seek higher wages and a better pension system.

The wage increase he said, should be "sufficient to meet the present day needs of the workers."

Addressing the annual convention of the communications workers of America (CIO) Murray added that "we will insist upon the institution of an adequate pension and social insurance program."

"Despite its fabulous profits, the United States Steel corporation has failed miserably in meeting its social obligations to its aged workers. The company's pension plan pays its aged workers an overall average pension amounting to $5.83 a month."

"U. S. steel thrusts these aged workers upon the industrial scrap heap with this woefully meager pittance." Negotiations will begin Wednesday.

Murray added in welcoming CWA into the CIO fold, that "I am going to recommend to the CIO convention (on Oct. 31 in Cleveland) that a constitutional amendment be adopted which would bar any organization from representation on the CIO board or in our CIO councils which fail to live up to the decisions of our conventions or to our constitution."

VOTE ON NEW CHARTER TO BE ON BLUE BALLOT

Springfield, Ill., June 13—(P)—Governor Stevenson today signed two bills providing for a separate blue ballot to be used in the 1950 general election vote on gateway reform of the Illinois constitution.

The bills are designed to improve chances for voters' adoption of the gateway amending process. The gateway proposal has failed five times since 1892 to obtain the necessary majority of all votes cast in the election.

If it is adopted next year, it would make it easier to amend the 1870 state constitution.

United Mine Workers Leave Pits For Week

Senators Ask Truman To Cut U. S. Spending

Washington, June 13—(P)—Nine senators, representing both parties, joined today in sponsoring a resolution directing President Truman to cut federal spending by $2,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000.

The reductions would be made in funds provided for the next fiscal year which starts July 1.

To become effective, the resolution would have to win the approval of both houses of congress and the president himself.

Senator McClellan (D-Ark.), chairman of the expenditures committee, introduced the resolution after it was backed by a vote of 8 to 2 in the committee. He invited all other senators to join him as sponsors and 18 quickly added their names.

McClellan said his hope was to bring the budget into balance without new taxes. Mr. Truman reportedly has asked for $4,600,000,000 in additional revenue. He has estimated that without such a raise, the treasury will be about $800,000,000 in the red at the end of fiscal 1950.

The resolution would direct the president to slice from 5 to 10 per cent off the aggregate of funds voted by congress for executive agencies and departments next year.

With the budget rising in the neighborhood of $42,000,000,000, this would make cuts of $2,000,000,000 to $4,000,000,000 mandatory.

However, since the bulk of the budget is made up of items such as interest on the public debt which cannot be reduced without changing laws or dishonoring commitments, McClellan figured the reductions would have to be concentrated on about $17,500,000,000 in appropriations which are not in that category.

Under the resolution, however, no department's total appropriation could be cut more than 20 per cent.

Cominform Plots Tito's Downfall

Warsaw, June 13—(P)—The Cominform was reliably reported tonight to be plotting an "economic strangulation" of Yugoslavia to punish Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia for straying from what Moscow says is the true communist line.

New Propaganda campaigns are also being sharpened against the west and the Marshall plan, it was said.

Maps Out All Plans
An authoritative source said high communist chiefs of Soviet Russia and the eastern satellites at a secret meeting in lower Silesia had mapped an all out economic war against Tito's regime.

This informant said the eastern nations, who like Russia had already radically slashed exports to Yugoslavia, were now likely to cut off all shipments in the near future. Hungary was said to have already set July 1 as the date for complete stoppage.

A Polish government official who could not be quoted by name said Hilary Minc, top economic coordinator in the government, had been called from his vacation in Crimea to direct the tightening of the economic noose on Yugoslavia.

Minc will advise the cominform on strategy, the official said. Minc is one of the signers of the declaration that set up the cominform—the communist international information bureau. The communist chiefs are slated to end their meeting tomorrow.

Hardened Attitude
Informed sources said the session of communist leaders of eastern Europe was certain to produce a hardened attitude toward Marshal Tito's Yugoslavia. Next on the agenda, they added, is an intensification of "peace conferences" supporting the international views of Russia against "American imperialism and warmongers."

The communist-inspired world peace congress in Paris last April set up a permanent committee to wage a propaganda campaign with peace as the watchword and to hold more such conferences.

(The placing of Yugoslavia at the top of the program for secret discussion by the communist international information bureau coincided with reports from Paris that the western powers were considering extending a helping hand to Marshal Tito.)

Standards Bureau Tells How To Slice Tissue 'Very' Thin

Washington, June 13—(P)—How to slice tissues one one-quarter millionth of an inch thick—or thinner than the ham in a lunch counter sandwich—was explained today by the National Bureau of Standards.

You take a monomer and a catalyst, see, and stir them up into a clear plastic—polybutyl methacrylate, for instance. Embed the tissue in that.

Now get out an ordinary old conventional microtome. Shoot some carbon dioxide gas to it. The gas enters the specimen chamber and cools the specimen. Bring up the microtome blade to the specimen, which is mounted in a brass block.

Then, as the brass gets warm again, it expands, advancing the specimen a distance imperceptible to the human eye, like the progress at a foreign ministers conference.

If you have followed directions carefully, your slice should be approximately one-tenth of a micron thick. An average human hair is about 75 microns in thickness, the bureau says.

If properly executed, the slice cannot be seen edgewise under the most powerful light microscope, so don't worry about ragged edges.

Lewis Talks Over Contract With Owners

Philadelphia, June 13—(AP)—A weeklong holiday began today for the nation's 480,000 coal miners and John L. Lewis, their bushy-browed boss spent the day telling coal operators what he wants in a new contract.

The walkout of United Mine Workers members was ordered by Lewis. He called the stoppage a "stabilization holiday."

Lewis' contract with the softcoal operators doesn't expire until June 30. If no new pact is signed by then and the union's traditional policy is carried out, a drawn-out coal strike likely will result.

Go Back Next Monday
The miners are scheduled to go back to work next Monday. But they'll quit again June 25 for their annual 10-day paid holiday.

That means very little coal will be mined for some time to come.

Contract talks at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel here today were between Lewis and Harry Moses, president of the H. C. Fricke Coke Co., coal-producing subsidiary of U. S. Steel Corp.

"Big Steel" employs only 20,000 miners in its "captive" pits, but any agreement between Lewis and U. S. Steel probably will set the pattern for the industry. It has done so in the past.

The conference began at 10 a.m. (CDT) and was adjourned at 2:45 p.m., with a two-hour recess for luncheon.

Moses issued this brief statement at the conclusion of the meeting: "We have spent these sessions today talking about necessary preliminaries for negotiation of a new contract."

Recess Until Thursday
"We have decided to recess until Thursday, June 23, at which time we will start talks for signing of a new contract. The place of our next meeting has not yet been determined."

Then he turned to Lewis and asked the UMW chieftain if he concurred.

"I do," intoned Lewis solemnly. He said nothing more but fixed his white Panama hat on his head and strode from the room.

Moses wouldn't say whether the group had talked over the current walkout. "I can say nothing more," he told reporters.

Lewis was scowling deeply, as is his custom, when he walked into the conference room. He didn't give a hint of what he was asking.

And Moses and his associates made it plain they had nothing to offer Lewis. "John asked us to meet with him," one U. S. Steel spokesman said. "And that's the only reason we're here."

There was little by way of comment from miners in the field. As usual, all UMW dues-payers followed Lewis' orders and quit work.

Parties Favoring Return To Italy Win Trieste Vote

Trieste, Free Territory, Tuesday, June 14—(P)—Parties favoring the return of Trieste to Italy swept the free city's first municipal election Sunday.

Official returns early today gave the pro-Italian candidates 40 of the 60 city council seats.

The six pro-Italian parties received a total of 106,973 votes, to 61,136 for parties wanting to keep Trieste independent or place it under Yugoslavia.

The election held yesterday to pick a 60-man city council was the first free balloting here in 27 years. It was not a plebiscite on the international status of Trieste but it assumed that flavor in the campaign. The council will pick a mayor and executive committee.

The population of the city is mainly Italian and a pro-Italian vote was expected.

Trieste is now occupied by British and American forces. There was no election in the portion of the free territory occupied by Yugoslavia.

RUSSIA MUFFLES RADIO "VOICE" BUT FINDS SILENCE EXPENSIVE

The State Department credits Russia with winning the first phase of its big radio war with the United States and Britain.
But the victory apparently was costly. And it may prove a hollow triumph, too, for it suggests that Winston Churchill was right when he said the Russian leaders are afraid to be friendly with us.
Russia has always tried to interfere on a minor scale with western broadcasts of news beamed to the Soviet Union. When the Berlin blockade was lifted, however, this "jamming" was stepped up tremendously. The action was a clear sign the Soviet leaders did not want any version but their own getting to Russian ears.
Jamming may take many forms. The jamming transmitter comes on the air at or near the airplane used by the foreign broadcaster, and lets fly with whistles, squawks, buzzing, ear-splitting music, a gibberish of talk, anything at all that might drown out the offending program.
Since the end of the blockade, the Russians have been playing this game hard. Our "Voice of America" officials report that they have tripled the number of stations devoted to jamming, until some 205 transmitters do nothing else.
Our "Voice" people have not submitted to this campaign easily. We have increased the number of transmitters in service and plan still more. We have resorted to every device we can think up to break through the interference screen.
Our programs stay on around the clock. Transmitters change wave lengths (airplanes) in the middle of a broadcast, hoping any Russian listeners have enough sense to fish elsewhere and pick up some words of truth before the jamming station catches on. We teach our broadcasters to speak clearly and loud, so they may be heard above the din.

This fighting response has driven the Russians to extremes. Tripling their total of jamming stations has meant cutting down the number of domestic programs in the Soviet Union and has crippled Russian propaganda broadcasts to foreign listeners.

At his heavy price, says the State Department, the Russians have largely beaten us. Our programs now are getting through "only in spots," officials say.

But one wonders how long the Soviet leaders can continue this extravagant desperation.

One wonders, too, if the Russians have any idea how great an admission of fear their jamming war really is.

The few westerners allowed into Russia gain no real knowledge of life in a communist world. Nor are Russians permitted to learn of the West from their visitors.

That communist leaders now feel compelled to extend this veil of ignorance to the airlines is evidence their people must be trying to find out what the rest of the world is actually like.

It lends weight to Churchill's view: the Russian bosses cannot afford to accept western friendship. They are concealing too much, both from their own people and from us. They have everything to lose. What else but fear could explain this frenzied torrent of meaningless sounds against mere news broadcasts?

Personal Risk From Lightning Very Slight

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written For NEA Service
Every year, usually in the summer, a few people are hit by a bolt of lightning. Some are killed but others survive.

In general, lightning acts on the human body in much the same way that any other electrical current of equal strength would do. It may produce injury by means of direct effect of the current, by means of highly heated air or other material through which the bolt of lightning has passed, or by the effect of a blast of air caused by the rapid progress of the electrically charged

Question: I believe the reason for baldness is the wearing of a tight hatband shutting off the circulation. I notice that since it has become the custom for the younger generation to go without a hat they do not have much trouble with falling hair.

Answer: This makes a nice theory but I should suggest that you wait until the younger generation grows older before you draw conclusions.

Where East And West Meet In Mutual Fear

By Hal Boyle
Berlin, June 13.—Here in defeated Germany is the world capital to postwar optimism.
There is uneasiness in Washington, Paris, London and Moscow. There appears to be less uneasiness here.

The biggest single impression a postwar visitor gets now is that the defeated are not so worried today as their conquerors. They see better times.

For the current international tug-of-war over the fate of his conqueror has given back the average German something he lost when his nation collapsed in military and political chaos in 1945.

He has regained a feeling of importance, the thing the German likes best. He has the knowledge that here where east and west once met in victory they now meet in mutual fear. And he knows that he is the key stone of that fear.

Courted From Two Sides
He is enjoying the odd pleasure of being courted from two directions simultaneously instead of having to fight simultaneously in two directions. And this is a flattering gift of peace indeed to a nation that got itself in the classic military dilemma—having to fight fore and after the same time.

Three years ago, when I last came here, the victor's prevailing philosophy, left over from wartime unity, was:
"Germany is trying to divide the allies—split them into two camps."
Today the underlying feeling appears to be:
"We must win the Germans to our side."

Germany Is More United
No longer do the conquerors say they can't afford to let themselves be divided by the vanquished. Tacitly accepting that division now, they court the conquered. In defeat Germany is today more united than the nations who whipped her.

Earning A Million Dollars A Year Is A Thing Of Past

Washington, June 13.—It's beginning to look like earning a million dollars a year—much less her? The muscular military power thing of the past, at least if you work for a corporation.

Comparatively few people ever did that much and no one it appeared from treasury records today, has been able to get that much pay out of a company since mid-war 1944, when film producer Leo McCarey was credited with $1,113,035 for 12 months efforts.

A new treasury list shows America's best paid corporation employee in 1947 or fiscal years spilling over into 1948, got $810,000—$175,300 less than he got to be No. 1 the previous year ago. The list showed salaries as they stood before payment of heavy taxes.

The top man, and it's his third straight year as such, is Greek-born Charles P. Skouras, president of the National Theatre Amusement Co., Inc., and of Fox West Coast Agency Corp.

The top starlet woman for 1947 was movie star Betty Grable. Although $208,000 listed for her was a $31,333 comedown from her earnings the previous year. Miss Grable has been among the leading women earners for three years.

COUPLE WED WHILE ON PLANE FLIGHT

Mattson, Ill., June 13.—Princess Cecile, 31, hazel-eyed granddaughter of Germany's late Kaiser Wilhelm, will trade her family's medieval castle for an apartment in Amarillo when she marries Texas Clyde Harris, 31. He is the son of Konawa, Okla., banker Bert Harris.

The princess numbers among her ancestors Queen Victoria of England, the Emperors of Germany and innumerable reigning Princess, Grand Dukes and Margraves. Her father is the former Crown Prince Wilhelm.

She is a niece of Prince Louis Ferdinand of Prussia who worked for the Ford Motor company in Detroit between the two World Wars and visited the United States last year.

The wedding plans, secret until yesterday, call for a marriage June 21 in the bleak Hohenzollern castle at Hechingen in the Bavarian Alps.
Then "we will settle down in Texas," says the blonde Princess who is listed in the Almanach de Gotha—royalty's "social register"—as Cecile Viktoria Anastasia Zita Thyra Adelheid, last name Hohenzollern. There has been no announcement whether she will keep her title after the marriage or be known as "Mrs. Harris."

Sweden occupies an area of 173,347 square miles.

Political Indifference Perilous To Democracy, Governor Warns Class

The political indifference of the American citizen often nullifies the accumulated advantages of education, Governor Adlai E. Stevenson warned 95 graduates of Illinois College, the largest class in the 120 year history of the school, when he spoke at commencement exercises held in the College Grove Sunday morning.

A large crowd, estimated upwards to 1,600, attended.

Speaking fervently in defense of democracy, the governor declared: "It is easy to take our way of life for granted, and the three R's of our school days often are displaced in later years by the three N's of political life—non-voting, non-interest and non-participation. These attitudes are a far greater threat to our way of life than the policies of the gentlemen in the Kremlin. And just remember that your public servants serve you right. I beg of you to beware of the corruption of your conscience and the ideals you have today, to beware of the subtle corrupting effect of the apathy and cynicism you will find all about you."

Congratulations College City
At the beginning of his address, Gov. Stevenson thanked Illinois College, asserting "you do me great honor to invite me here today to the heart of Illinois' greatest resource, her farmlands, and to Illinois College, another of our finest resources and one of the most venerable and distinguished education institutions of our state. Jacksonville is not alone the home of three Illinois governors, but the cradle of many of the great spiritual and cultural ideas which have enriched the life of Illinois."

A charter delegate to the United National assembly, the governor urged further world cooperation and leadership on the part of the United States in an effort to show the rest of the world that democracy really works.

"Almost too late we have learned that hope to many does not precede, but follows tangible economic and social advance. So at last we are rapidly learning the facts of life and making the first beginnings of a realistic attack on the central problem of our time, which is victory in the war of ideas and peace. Now, belatedly, we are starting to export our most remarkable and precious product, the "know-how" which has made this country the envy of the world and the greatest social and political force since the fall of Rome."

He specifically urged the graduates to become interested in democracy at home, in "one of those 155,000 governing bodies in this country."

"We must give a little more thought to the care and feeding of democracy. And that means more participation to make it work, all 155,000 parts of it."

Change Through Consent
"Your formal training is largely over. I am sure that you are now well aware that we are dedicated to the principles that all men have a fundamental dignity, that each has the ability to develop into a better human being. You know that the gains of science and industry are the gains of all, to be shared by all as well as possible, as equitably as possible."

After President H. Gary Hudson presented the diplomas to the graduating class, he conferred the degree of Doctor of Civil Law upon Gov. Stevenson.

The Rev. William E. Guy of St. Paul, Minn., who graduated in the class of 1899, gave the invocation.

The Rev. Arthur P. Ewert of Westminster church presented the scripture reading and the Rev. W. Harris Pankhurst of Pilgrim Congregational church gave the benediction.

Plan World Drive Against Disease

Rome, June 13.—Representatives of more than 70 nations met here today to discuss a vigorous world offensive against disease and ill-health.

They convened in the second annual assembly of the World Health Organization, a United Nations affiliate. The delegates were greeted by Italy's president Luigi Einaudi, premier Alcide De Gasperi and Foreign Minister Carlo Sforza.

The Constitution says the president, vice president and civil officers of the United States can be impeached for "treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

Kaiser Wilhelm's Granddaughter To Marry American

Langen, Germany, June 13.—A royal princess of Prussia will soon be at home "deep in the heart of Texas."

Princess Cecile, 31, hazel-eyed granddaughter of Germany's late Kaiser Wilhelm, will trade her family's medieval castle for an apartment in Amarillo when she marries Texas Clyde Harris, 31. He is the son of Konawa, Okla., banker Bert Harris.

The princess numbers among her ancestors Queen Victoria of England, the Emperors of Germany and innumerable reigning Princess, Grand Dukes and Margraves. Her father is the former Crown Prince Wilhelm.

She is a niece of Prince Louis Ferdinand of Prussia who worked for the Ford Motor company in Detroit between the two World Wars and visited the United States last year.

The wedding plans, secret until yesterday, call for a marriage June 21 in the bleak Hohenzollern castle at Hechingen in the Bavarian Alps.
Then "we will settle down in Texas," says the blonde Princess who is listed in the Almanach de Gotha—royalty's "social register"—as Cecile Viktoria Anastasia Zita Thyra Adelheid, last name Hohenzollern. There has been no announcement whether she will keep her title after the marriage or be known as "Mrs. Harris."

Hitler's Yacht Enroute To U. S.

New York, June 13.—Adolf Hitler's $4,000,000 yacht, considered the world's largest and most luxurious private yacht, is due here Wednesday from Gibraltar.

Its new owner, George Ardis, middle east industrialist, said yesterday he is scheming to find a way to use the yacht that would have caused Hitler the greatest possible displeasure.

The yacht, 476 feet long and capable of 30 knots, was built for Hitler as a gift from the German people.

INFANT BORN 6,000 FEET ABOVE L. A.

Long Beach, Calif., June 13.—P—Attendants at the Naval hospital here call the one-day-old boy "C-47." And not without good reason.

The son of Sgt. and Mrs. Barney Fisch was born yesterday in a C-47 cargo plane 6,000 feet above nearby Los Angeles.

The Air Force supplied the C-47 to try and beat the bird to the hospital here. Aboard the plane was a nurse, Lt. Mary R. Foster.

AUSTRALIA GAINS

Canberra—Australia added 28,000 people to her population by immigration in 1948.

Government figures show that 63,311 persons came to Australia during the year with the idea of living here permanently. In 1948, however, 17,000 people left Australia planning to be away one year or longer.

These 17,000 people are counted as losses to Australia.

CITES DANGERS OF KITE-FLYING

New York—It's easier for today's kite-flying youngsters to draw electricity down a kite string than when Benjamin Franklin made his discoveries. For that reason, says Frank L. Jones, president of the Greater New York Safety Council, modern kite-flying can be far more dangerous.

Jones says that if a kite comes into contact with power lines—which were non-existent in Franklin's day—it may conduct enough electricity to cause serious accidents. He warns against using thin wire or wire-threaded cord for a kite. If wet, ordinary string or cord will also conduct electricity, he says.

The estimated population of Sweden in 1947 was only 6,803,000.

Faulty Elimination Of Kidney Wastes Causes Uremia

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service.

When waste materials are not eliminated through the kidneys they build up in the blood and cause a condition known as uremia or uremic poisoning. Usually it is the result of some kind of kidney failure such as a long lasting Bright's disease or nephritis. Occasionally it results from shock, or severe loss of fluid from the body as in long-continued vomiting or watery diarrhea.

A diagnosis can be made only after the blood has been examined chemically to find out whether the poisonous substances are actually increased. This chemical examination of the blood also helps to decide what treatment to use and what the outcome is likely to be. Tests of the urine and careful examinations of the functioning before a complete diagnosis can be made and proper treatment started.

Symptoms Vague
The symptoms cannot be easily described. A vague "toxic" condition which becomes gradually worse is the rule. Victims of uremia are especially susceptible to infections, which can lead to complications. Treatment depends on what is preventing the elimination of poisonous wastes and how far it has progressed. In general, when the cause is due to the kidneys the only measures which can be taken are those which will aid the kidneys in elimination.

The best time to attack uremia, of course, is long before it develops. If the Bright's disease or other cause of uremia can be prevented, the condition will not occur. Some cases of Bright's disease leading eventually to uremia are the result of acute infections such as pneumonia or scarlet fever. Hence prompt attack on such infections by sulfa drugs or penicillin ought to prevent some cases from developing at all.

Uremia is really a late stage of any one of several conditions and is not a disease of itself.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Question: What can be done for an acid condition of the stomach which causes a bitter taste in the mouth?

Answer: The stomach juices are always normally acid. Sometimes this acid passes up to the mouth and causes a bitter taste. In many cases of this sort, however, some disease condition may be present in the stomach which should be tested for by X-rays and other methods.

Capitol Face-Lifting Delicate Job

Architect Lynn Carves A $5 Million Compromise Between The Antique Lovers And Brash Moderns

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

NEA Staff Correspondent

Washington—(NEA)—How modern can you make an antique?

Kindly, grey David Lynn, Architect of the Capitol, hopes he finally has the answer.

On one side he's been mercilessly pressured by a crowd whose creed is, "Don't plug up a worn-hole in yonder venerable edifice." They would preserve every tobacco stain and spur mark in the Capitol. So what if the roof falls in? It'll make it more historic than ever.

On the other side he's been nagged by the brash moderns who want built-in television lighting, air conditioning with humidity control, comfortable seats, fireproof walls and collapse-proof roofs.

Since long before the war Lynn has been pleading with the Congressmen to let him make the Capitol a safer and more comfortable place in which to legislate. The best he could talk them into has been the reinforcement of the roofs and ceilings of the Senate and House chambers with ugly steel girders.

But at last they've consented to some improvements. In July, the workmen will be ready to swarm all over the place and try to effect the great compromise between the antique lovers and the moderns which Lynn has worked out. It's planned to do half the job during this summer's recess and the other half next summer. The cost will be about $5,000,000.

Brand new roofs over both the Senate and House are the biggest parts of the project. They will replace the sagging skylights which under the ruses on the floors and now are the only protection against rain and sun afforded for the legislators' heads. The new roofs will be reinforced concrete. The ceilings will mostly be of large stainless steel plates for the center sections, with painted plaster for the sides. Lynn describes part of it:

"In the center of the ceiling will be introduced an ornamental rosette, the field of which will be of carved shatter-proof glass illuminated from above so as to furnish a visible source of direct light. This light is only for the sake of appearance. The actual lighting of the floor will be accomplished by reflected light from the ceiling, the source of which will be light outlets arranged around the perimeter of the cove."

For their own reasons the senators have never permitted a public address system to be installed in their chamber. In the remodeling, however, they have permitted Lynn to put in the cables for one in case they change their minds.

Lack of a P.A. system sometimes makes it difficult for persons in the galleries to hear what's going on and for the senators to hear each other. But Lynn hopes that the new acoustical tile which will be used to line the gallery and chamber, and the new squeakproof seats in the visitors' gallery, will help everyone to hear what is being said on the floor.

The present House amplifying system, it has been said, gives some members headaches after a day of particularly heavy debate. The new one will have small loudspeakers concealed behind gridded panels on the walls instead of one big one suspended from the ceiling.

In addition to providing more comfortable seats in the House, the staff, the comfortable arrangement will be in the Tyne River decided to start proved. Two aisles will be eliminated, counters for children only.

U.S. Soldiers
Back In England

Teddington, Middlesex, England—(P)—The children of this London suburb are saying again: "Got any gum, chum?"

The 500 officers and men stationed here at the British Air Transport Command's Bushy Park seem a bit different from the Americans who were here in war time. The 500 are the headquarters of the Third United States Air Division, working very hard at administering the affairs of the three American bomb groups training in the United Kingdom, and of the great machine shops at Burtonwood where American mechanics tune up planes.

This army seems different because there is little of the clamor and urgency of war time. The soldiers' families are about. Headquarters men live in English homes and fume like Englishmen about fireplaces that smoke. They stand in cues to get English ration, and often inconspicuously into the community lives of a dozen villages. They can be inconspicuous because in off duty hours they may wear civilian clothing.

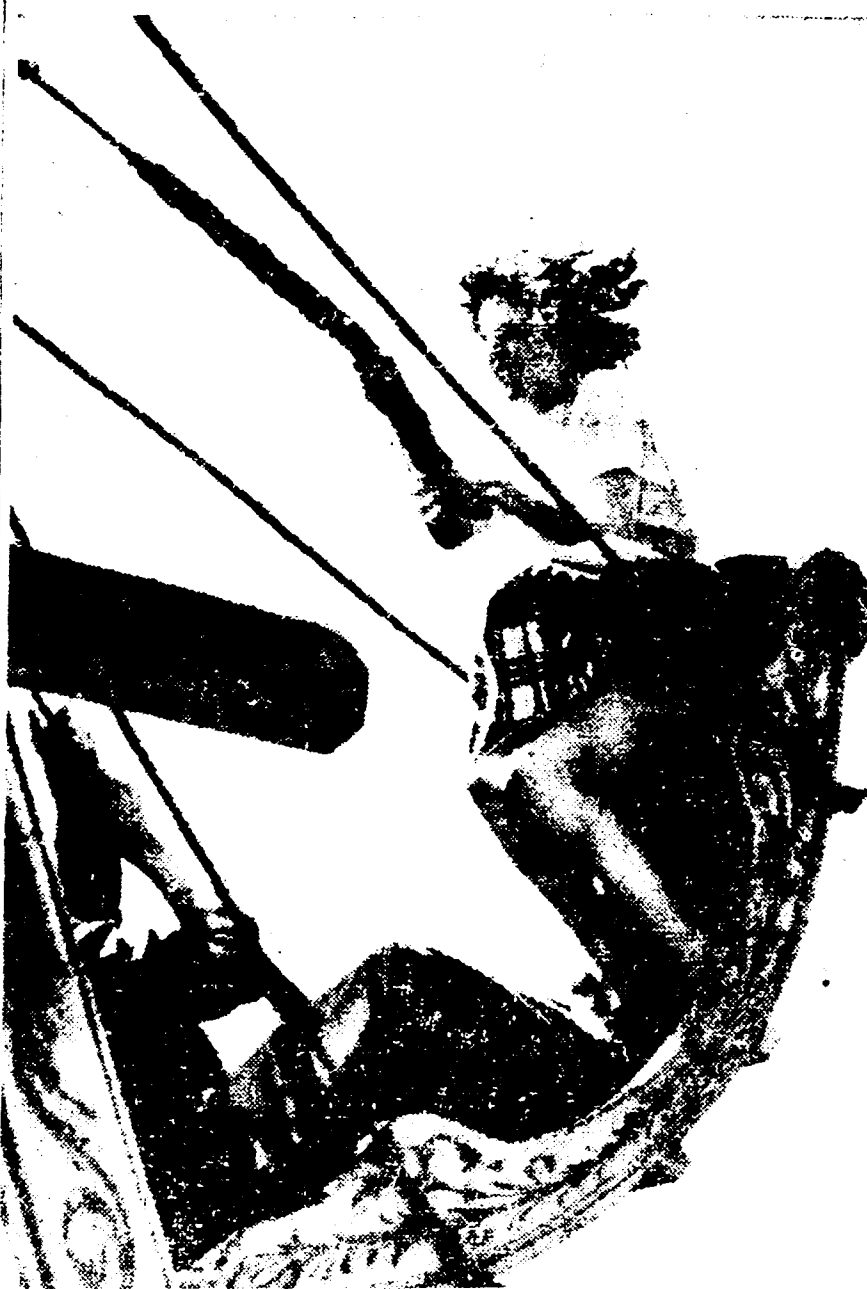

The Third Air Division's tasks fall into two quite separate activities. One is the training program. The bomb groups fly over from America for three-month training periods, and are based at Sculthorpe, Lakenheath and Marham. They fly about in tricky English weather, often collaborating in the RAF training program.

The other job is at Burtonwood, where specialized troops on indefinite assignment service the planes on the Berlin air lift.

Soldiers who do not live in barracks need sterling to pay the rent, and the American in uniform is approached by slick characters who offer pounds cheap for dollars. It's black marketing, discouraged by the army and regarded with horror by the British treasury.

So the division converts some dollars officially and soldiers may have any portion of their pay in sterling. But once having accepted sterling they cannot convert back into dollars, a situation full of headaches for soldiers expecting to be transferred on short notice.

Numerous American children contribute to the family atmosphere which distinguishes headquarters from American units which were here in war time.

Jury Finds J. Spaulding
Drowning Accidental;
Plan Funeral Tuesday

A verdict of accidental drowning was returned by a coroner's jury investigating the death of John M. Spaulding, 21 year old navy veteran, which occurred Saturday night at Morgan lake, when the boat in which he and three companions were riding overturned on the south side of the lake near the causeway.

Testimony concerning the accident was given at the inquest by the three young men who were with Spaulding at the time, Harry H. Wolfe and Resta D. Bates, U. S. sailors stationed at Patuxent River, Md., who are spending a leave here, and Charles E. Runkel, 835 North Main street.

The three said that they were attending the park dance and they decided to take a boat ride shortly after ten o'clock. After getting the boat out, it started shipping water. The young men were changing places in order to get a better balance, when the boat began sinking.

Head For Shore
The four started swimming towards the shore, with Runkel taking the boat and oars. Spaulding was missed by the others when they reached the shore and they went back to look for him. Runkel found the body about 30 feet from the shore in five and a half feet of water.

Artificial respiration was administered after the body was brought to the shore and Deputy Sheriffs Roach and Warzaw were summoned. The fire department, notified of the accident, rushed to the park with the inhalator.

Spaulding did not revive. He was pronounced dead at midnight by Dr. T. O. Hardesty.

Inquest Sunday

Coroner C. H. Muehlhausen was also called to the scene. He conducted the inquest Sunday at 10 a. m. at the Gillham Funeral Home, at which testimony was heard from Spaulding's companions, the two deputies and Dr. Hugh A. McKinley, who stated that death was caused by asphyxiation from emerging in water.

The jurors were Claude B. Vail, Loren Rogers, David Carroll, Charles M. Ryan, John W. Magner and George T. Lukeman, Jr. Nancy Schindler was the stenographer.

Spaulding was born in Houston, Tex., on June 18, 1927, the son of Eldon and Birdie Deforges Spaulding. He was a veteran of World War II, having served as a metalsmith in the U. S. Navy. He received his discharge on May 8.

He was a member of the Church of Our Saviour, the American Legion, Moose Lodge 865 and the Rated Servicemen's club of Norfolk, Va.

Funeral Tuesday

Surviving besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon P. Spaulding, 139 East Wolcott street, are a sister, Mrs. Albert Hatala of rural route six; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Spaulding of this city; and several nieces and nephews.

A brother and sister preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 8:30 a. m. at the Church of Our Saviour, with the Rev. Dean F. P. Formaz officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Lawn cemetery, where military rites will be conducted by the Amvets, American Legion and V. F. W.

Alleged Purse Snatcher Captured After Chase

An alleged purse snatcher was run down and captured by a Jacksonville citizen early Sunday morning, in a chase that started in front of Wadell's store at the southwest corner of the public square, and ended in an alley off South Main street.

Paul C. Hobbs, a 38 year old restaurant cook, was overtaken and grabbed by John Carl, a passer by, whose attention was attracted by a commotion at the southeast corner of the square. Learning that a purse had been snatched from the hands of Miss Mildred Armstead, Carl gave chase to a fleeing figure.

After overtaking the alleged purse snatcher, Carl was given assistance by Joe Buckner and Robert Richards.

Hobbs was taken to the police station and turned over to officers. He denied the accusation that he grabbed the girl's purse.

During the chase the purse is said to have been thrown on the ground near a parked truck. The purse and its contents were recovered.

After a conference Monday morning between police and State's Attorney Albert Hall, a warrant was sworn out charging Hobbs with robbery. He waived preliminary examination when taken before Justice C. S. Smith, and was bound over to the grand jury under $5,000 bond. Failing to provide bond, the defendant was transferred to the county jail.

Illinois College Prepares To Start Work On Modern Gym

Plans Call For 3,000 Seating Capacity; To Award Contract Soon

Erection of a new gymnasium with 3,000 seating capacity, with contracts to be awarded and construction scheduled to start this summer, was announced by President H. Gary Hudson of Illinois College to an enthusiastic commencement day audience Sunday morning.

The new physical education building and modern gymnasium will be built at Mound and Lincoln avenues, Dr. Hudson said. He explained that construction will be spread over four stages, the first to include the main gymnasium and playing floor, with other features to be added later.

The president's announcement was received with a round of applause from the big audience, which gathered to hear a commencement address by Governor Adlai Stevenson. Need for a modern gym has been recognized at Illinois College for many years. Plans for the building have now reached the contract and construction stage.

President's Announcement
President Hudson's announcement, received in connection with his annual report, was in part as follows: "One of the most urgent needs of Illinois College has been for many years a physical education building including a modern gymnasium. This building is to provide more than simply the facilities for indoor college sports. The plans call for its adaptability to the teaching of health and physical education and to the use for social affairs and other activities of the students. The building will be erected on the corner of Mound and Lincoln avenues.

"The total amount of gifts received to date from alumni, faculty, and students of the College and friends of Illinois College, especially in Jacksonville and its vicinity, has now reached a sum which will permit the beginning of construction. The plans of the architect call for the erection of the building in four stages. The first unit will consist of the main playing floor, with a seating capacity of approximately 3,000, the heating plant and a few auxiliary rooms. The second unit will be principally the basement under the main playing floor, where will be located the dressing rooms, handball courts, and other rooms for individual sports. The third unit will be entrances and rooms on the front of

Jay-Cee Lassies Tag Missouri Misses 6 To 5

St. Louis, Mo., June 12.—The Jay-Cee lassies, with Bert Lauder tossing a 4-hitter, tonight defeated the Crosstown Motor Girls team of St. Louis, 6 to 5.

The Crosstown lassies are currently holding down first place in the St. Louis city league, and this loss marked only their second defeat of the season.

Lauder, who has been sidelined for two weeks with a leg injury, had difficulty with her control in the early stages of the game and gave up all five of the Crosstown runs on an error, two free passes to first, and three hits before a fast double play finally halted the outburst.

The Jay-Cees made it a new ball game in the top half of the second stanza, when they matched the St. Louis club's efforts with five markers of their own. These tallies were produced on 3 walks, singles by Phillips and Leonard, and a two-base swat by Lois Hubbert.

The winning run came in the fourth inning, when L. Hubbert and Phillips again garnered hits, which were sandwiched around Davis' timely blow.

Macomb Bruins Whip Elk Softballers 8-2

The Jacksonville Elks softball team, committing a total of 7 errors behind the 8-hit twirling of Dean Fair, dropped an 8-2 contest to the Macomb Bruins in the Sunday night feature game at Nichols Park.

Johnny Stilwell chucked 5-hit ball to lead the K. of C. squad to a 3-1 victory over the local Moose in a preliminary set-to.

The Elks, weakened by the absence of Bob Kraushaar, faltered in the second and fifth innings when they allowed 7 of the Macomb outfit's total runs to score. The visitors added one more run in the sixth frame on a single hit and two errors.

The Elks scored their brace of counters in the last inning. McNeely led off with a single and Charley Davis brought him home with a double. Davis later scored on a passed ball.

In the curtain-raiser, the local K. of C. nine scored three runs on two hits to take the win from the Moose. The Moose club pounded out 5 hits, but were unable to bunch them effectively.

The King family circled the Morgan County fairgrounds track during an intermission in Sunday's races. Mr. King commented, "It's as safe as any car, and besides, the kids love it," when questioned by a Journal-Courier reporter.

New York Stock Market

New York, June 13.—(P)—The stock market plunged to a four-year low today in one of the sharpest declines of the year.

A steady flow of selling orders pounded prices down fractions to an extreme of 6 points. Most losses were around 2 points or less.

The volume of trading expanded as the market weakened. Turnover was at the rate of around 1,000,000 shares for the full session, which would result in one of the busiest days of the year.

Today's spill represented a continuation of a downward trend that started around a month ago, and which has persisted almost without interruption.

Corporate bonds dropped with stocks.

LATE SLUMP ERASES ADVANCE IN WHEAT; CORN, OATS WHEAT;

Chicago, June 13.—(P)—Grains lost ground rapidly toward the close today, ending with fairly substantial losses. Early gains extending to more than a cent in wheat were wiped out under light by persistent selling.

Corn and oats were weak from the start. Demands dried up, partly because of decline in cash wheat prices and partly because of nervousness resulting from another drop in securities at New York. Rains over the week-end in the mid-west served to depress corn.

Receipts were: wheat 50 cars, corn 131, oats 43, rye 3, barley 47, soybeans 41.

Moose Baseball Club Wins At Havana 6 To 2

John Maynard, lanky ex-college pitcher, pitched the Jacksonville Moose independent loop, holding a record of 5-0.

The Havana Red Sox in a night contest there Sunday night.

That the locals were making their debut under the arcs was evident. Spots, ss, showed the final tabulations showed Stroud, 3b, that a total of 20 Moose batsmen Kraushaar, cf, had been whiffed by the Havana Sommer, lf.

Race, 1b, second. Due, c, baseman and leadoff hitter was the Burke, rf, only Jacksonville athlete who had collected a pair of bingles out of four trips to the batters' box.

Moments of wildness on the part of Tangman, port-sider, coupled Lewis, cf, with timely hits, gave the Jacksonville outfit the necessary runs in the sixth and seventh cantos. The Moose bunched three runs in each of those frames to total their six markers.

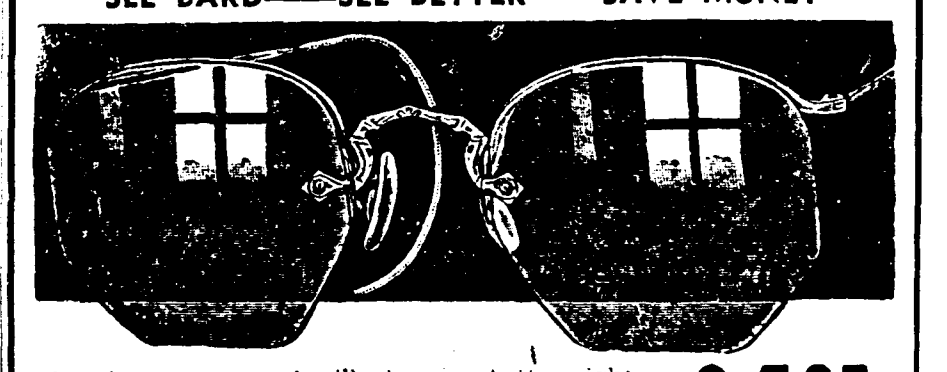

The host nine collected its pair of scores in the final half of the eighth when Maynard relaxed and allowed Tangman, p, two hits and a walk.

The win kept the locals' state clean in the Illinois Valley league. They now own a win record of 4 as stacked against no losses. Beardstown

Myers Bros. Mark Successful Debut Into State Softball League

Bill Deutsch's Myers Bros. softball aggregation marked a successful debut in the Peoria Star's Central Illinois Industrial Conference league at Streator Sunday evening when they whipped the host club 8 to 5.

Announcement of the local club's entry into the state league was made late last week, and no information was obtainable. The loop has been in action since May 21; however, the Myers nine has played but the single game to date. By virtue of the win, they share the circuit lead with a record of 1-0.

With their club plainly tabbed as a team to beat in the league, the locals prepare to repel a home invasion by Roszells of Peoria on the Nichols park diamond this Wednesday evening. Roszells is also rated a strong contender for the league crown.

CISC games are unique in that they continue for nine innings, the same duration as baseball. The Myers crew was late arriving at Streator Sunday night, and had time for only seven frames.

The league—managed by Allan Upton of the Peoria Star—consists

George Kell Leads American League Hitters With .346

Chicago, June 13.—(P)—Third baseman George Kell of the Detroit Tigers today held a 21-point lead in the American league batting race as the pitchers began to catch up with the hitters.

Kell last week climbed five points to .346. At the same time, outfielder Dom DiMaggio of Boston, who last week trailed Kell by only two points, slumped to a third-place 318.

Into the runner-up spot moved Philadelphia's Eddie Joost with 325, an increase of three over last week. Kell and Joost were the only top runners to make any progress in the week ended Sunday.

Fourth was Washington's Eddie Robinson despite an eight-point drop to .317. Ted Williams of Boston yielded a point to a fifth-spot .316, while Chicago's Coss "M"uels skidded 15 points to .312.

Four newcomers rounded out the top ten, including Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, .310; Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, .306; Hank Majeski, Philadelphia, .303; and Vic Wertz, Detroit, .301.

Boston's Vern Stephens was a double leader in the specialized department with 15 home runs and 54 runs-batted-in.

Kell led in hits with 73 and Joost's 54 runs headed that department. Although sidelined by injury for two weeks, Chicago's Gus Zernial still topped the two-bagger division with 17.

Mitchell led in triples with seven and Dillinger had the most base thefts, eight.

New York's Vic Raschi paced the pitching department with a 9-1 record for a 90.0 percentage. Detroit's Virgil Trucks was the No. 1 strike-out artist with 70.

To Honor Musial With Landis Plaque

St. Louis, June 13.—(P)—The St. Louis Cardinals announced today that baseball commissioner A. B. Chandler will award outfielder Stan Musial the Kenesaw Mountain Landis plaque here June 26.

Chandler will attend the game between the Boston Braves and the Cardinals.

The plaque, named after the first baseball commissioner, goes to Musial as the most valuable player in the National league last year. He led the league with a .376 batting average.

Musial received the plaque also in 1943 and 1946.

Giants Release Mex. Reinstater

New York, June 13.—(P)—Harry Feldman, erstwhile Mexican leaguer who returned to the New York Giants, has been released unconditionally at his own request.

The Giant office announced today. Waiters had been asked on the right-handed pitcher, with no takers.

Another reinstated player, Second Baseman George Hausmann, will join the Giants at Cincinnati tomorrow.

Kazak Tops Among 3rd Basemen In Star Poll

Chicago, June 13.—(P)—Rookie Ed Kazak of the St. Louis Cardinals today grabbed the lead among the National league's third basemen in the nation-wide poll to name the starting lineups for the all-star game at Brooklyn, July 12.

Kazak collected 4,304 votes from the first 14,951 ballots tabulated by the Chicago Tribune, sponsor of the poll. That gave the Cardinal player a 388 vote margin over New York third sacker Sid Gordon.

The Exchange and Cavalier Club sponsored motorcycle races can be termed a huge success by standards of the advance billing. The daredevil bike riders circled the track with all the reckless abandon promised, and even provided some of the "thrills and chills" that the posters announced.

The fact that even a racing motorcycle rider has nerves was displayed when, following Don Wavering's accident in the third race, the boys kinda eased off on the throttle when rounding the bends.

We were never an advocate of such suicidal lash-ups and have always contended that anyone in a hurry should start sooner.

The Redbirds are flying home. Yes, those Cardinals are flying high after wrecking destruction on the eastern clubs to the tempo of a 17-4 record. It took a Springfield boy to stop 'em. Robin Roberts, Philie twirler, shut Stan Musial off without a hit in Sunday's nightcap to hand the Cards an 8-3 headcase.

The Cards open a 20-game home stand tonight against the league-leading Dodgers. A series sweep would just about put Marse Eddie's boys on top of the heap.

Frankie Frisch, recently appointed manager of the floundering Chicago Cubs, has one cause for joy. The Pittsburgh Pirates—who kicked Franke in the "crick" a few years ago, are the current cellar-dwelling crew. The Cubs are one-half game ahead of the Bucs at this writing.

(Monday noon, June 13, 1949)

If you'll stand for a pun—and for us going out on a limb—we, like the old gypsy, think that the National league flag race is in the "Cards." And, we aren't superstitious either.

The Myers Bros. softball team is going after state-wide recognition this season. Bill Deutsch, Jim Wagner and Co., have entered the "Peoria Star" sponsored Central Illinois Industrial Softball league. And, after their lid-lifting, loop opener against Streator Sunday night, have been tabbed as one of the strongest contenders in the circuit.

The Cloisters squad will open its home league stand against Roszells of Peoria, an established "toughie" in the circuit, this Wednesday evening at the Southside park.

Here's the payoff. The winner of the 8-team loop, will have a crack at the Chicago National Softball Tournament with all expenses paid come the last of August.

Votes are still pouring in for the All-Star poll. Have you voiced your prejudice yet?

Jackie Robinson Takes Top Spot In N.L. Batting Race

New York, June 13.—(P)—Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn has taken over the batting leadership in the National league and is doing his best to monopolize the specialty departments.

The stellar second baseman raised his average seven points to .349 during the past week. He's tied for the lead with teammate Pee Wee Reese for runs scored, and stolen bases, 11.

Robinson also leads the league in hits with 73, is tied with Carl Furley of Brooklyn and Roy Smalley of Chicago for tops in triples with five and is tied for second with Puddin' Head Jones of Philadelphia in the two-base hit department with 14. Eddie Waitkus of Philadelphia has the most doubles, 16.

Robinson and Red Schoendienst of St. Louis were the only ones of last week's top 10 hitters to improve their average during the week.

Schoendienst is second to the Brooklyn star with .340, up five points during the week.

Ralph Kiner, of Pittsburgh, last week's leader, slumped from .366 to .339 which was good enough for third place. Others in the top 10 this week are: Eddie Kazak, St. Louis, .331; Willard Marshall, New York, .329; Sid Gordon, New York, .328; Emil Verban, Chicago, .324; Gil Hodges, Brooklyn, .313; Bobby Thomson, New York and Reese of Brooklyn, .311.

Kiner hit one home run during the week to increase his league-leading total to 14. Andy Seminick of Philadelphia and Stan Musial of St. Louis are tied for second with 11 each.

Ralph Branca of Brooklyn continued to pace the pitchers. He has the best average, 8-1, .889, and the most strike-outs, 52.

Pepsi Cola Nine Drops 9-7 Tussle To Havana Club

The Pepsi Cola softball crew ran into a little more than they could handle in the form of ex-state pitching champ, Bob Timlan at Havana Sunday night and fell before Timlan and his Moates outfit 9 to 7.

The Havana aggregation did the damage in the first and second frames. They led off with a pair of tallies in the initial chapter, and then followed up with a nightmarish second inning, during which they scored 7 big runs.

Harris, 32 years old, won 17 games and lost 9 in 1946 but developed arm trouble in 1947 and has been of little use to the Red Sox since. Mele battered 302 in 123 games in his freshman season but slumped to 233 last year and has been riding the bench during most of the current season.

Masterson, 29 years old, never has reached the potential expected of him by Washington although he is highly regarded throughout the league.

Ray Eldridge, Roy Cooper Tops In Junior Golf Meet

Ray Eldridge and Roy Cooper finished a single stroke apart to garner top honors in the Jacksonville Jay-Cee Junior tournament at Nichols park yesterday afternoon. The two Jacksonville boys finished with 89 and 89 strokes respectively to win the right to compete in the state junior meet which will be staged on the Danville greens Wednesday, June 22.

Eldridge and Cooper will go to Danville with all expenses paid by the local junior chamber of commerce—sponsors of the Jacksonville tourney. If successful in coping state honors at Danville, one of the youths will qualify for the national tournament at Houston, Texas.

Boys under 19, from 48 states will gather there during August 2-7 for the junior meet.

The Danville tourney will consist of 36 holes—18 in the morning and 18 in the afternoon.

Both boys attended JHS. Eldridge was captain of the high school golf team the past spring and placed well in the prep state meet held at Nichols park in May.

Other top contestants and scores tallied:

26 Year Old Quincy Rider Badly Injured In Motorcycle Races

Don Wavering, 26-year-old novice motorcycle rider from Quincy who was critically injured during the third race at the Morgan County Fairgrounds Sunday afternoon, was reported still unconscious and in critical condition at Passavant hospital Monday night.

The youth's wife and parents are with him. He had been unconscious for 31 hours at the time of the latest report.

Wavering—piloting a Harley Davidson cycle—had turned in the fastest time of any rider during the time trials Sunday noon, and had already notched top honors in the first novice elimination race when the accident occurred.

By virtue of his first place in the initial event, Wavering was competing in the novice finals, a race open only to the best in that class. He was leading the field in the second lap when his bike hit a rough spot on the southwest turn. Motorcycle and rider fell approximately six feet into the air as the other five contestants roared by.

Taken to Passavant Hospital
Wavering was rushed to Passavant hospital in an ambulance that had been standing-by. His injuries were diagnosed as skull fractures.

The injured rider is married and has one child—a three-year-old girl. He and his father operate a motorcycle shop in Quincy. Wavering, although still racing in the novice class, has been competing for several years throughout the motor-bike circuit which is sanctioned by the American Motorcycle association.

Other Minor Spills
The races—billed as supplying "thrills and chills"—offered fans just that. Several other riders cut dikes, swapped ends, and skidded on their side, as they rounded the turns.

Bob Jones, amateur rider from Champaign, was the top money winner of the day. Jones garnered four firsts. The Champaign daredevil ran second to no one during the entire course of the afternoon, gaining top honors in every race in which he competed. As a result of his win in the amateur final, he was allowed to compete against Bill Magurany, national cross-country champion, in the expert final and toured the eight laps in 4:23.9 minutes to whip the "Wild Irishman" from Wood River.

Magurany won both expert elimination heats to take number two spot on the win parade.

The Jacksonville Exchange club, which sponsored the races, promise more races next Aug. 14, when the motorcycles again invade the local fairgrounds.

How They Finished
The winners and runners-up in each event:

First novice elimination—Don Wavering, Quincy; Less Wright, Pinckneyville.

Second novice elimination—Alex Domyan, East St. Louis; Edwin Frese, Quincy.

Novice final—Less Wright, Pinckneyville; Edwin Frese, Quincy.

First amateur elimination—Bob Jones, Champaign; Billy Douglas, East St. Louis.

Second amateur elimination—Bob Jones, Champaign; Bob Eckhart, Pana.

First expert elimination—Bill Magurany, Wood River; John Douglas, East St. Louis.

Second expert elimination—Bill Magurany, Wood River; John Douglas, East St. Louis.

Amateur final—Bob Jones, Champaign; Billy Douglas, East St. Louis.

Expert final—Bob Jones, Champaign; Bill Magurany, Wood River.

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

"DON'T come any closer to me," George said. "I'm willing to talk it over, but keep your distance."

Bea started walking again. "How do you figure it was my gun?"

Bascombe relaxed. "I was watching you when Fred went into his song and dance about buying a second-hand automatic the last minute before we sailed. You knew he was lying. I knew he was lying, because I was with him every minute for days before we were ready to sail. The only way you could have known he was lying was by knowing something about the gun. It must have been yours."

"You couldn't let well enough alone. Oh, you pretended not to be satisfied, but that was a cover for the snooping you felt you had to do to make sure there weren't loose ends that you were in the clear." George shook his head. "It was a good act, but it didn't go over with me. And Nona told me how upset you were. You let down when you were alone with her."

"The obvious thing to say," Bea said dryly, "is that all this is a red herring. An attempt on your part to prove your innocence. Or Nona McGuire's innocence."

George Bascombe snapped. "Leave Nona out of this."

"I can't. She's in it up to her neck. And so are you. What sort of a cat were you two supposed to get from Sillwell when he said the film to Harding?"

"So you know about that too," George said. "You and Fred really got together. Two of a kind, and don't correct me. But that deal's off. It doesn't matter now."

"There's still Fred Sillwell. There's still the reason you and Nona agreed to his scheme in the first place. Does he have something on you?"

"You'll never know from me."

"I guess that's all the answer I need," Bea said. "But I'm curious about one point you haven't cleared up."

Bascombe grunted. "My motive." Bea went on. "What reason could I have for killing Lilly Warren?"

"YOU know better than I do," he insisted. "But her death was too hot, too timely, for suicide. Especially when she'd made a deal with Fred to help shake Harding down."

"That was the night before she was killed?"

"Yes. It was quite late when she came to our hut. She was a little drunk, and had some more with us. I guess Harding had already told her off because she was sore as hell. We'd salvaged some of the cameras and some film that was packed well enough so it wasn't damaged. Lilly declared herself in on the deal. She said Harding might not be willing to marry her, but she could still get him into position for pictures. Fred thought she could help a lot."

"And I found out about it and killed her to protect Harding?"

"Not Harding," Bascombe said. "I know you don't like him. No. I'd say you did it to protect yourself. So you could go on with your own plans."

"While I was at it then," Bea said. "I should have finished off the four of you too."

George took her seriously. "That's what's been worrying me lately. I've been expecting you to try something else. That's why I'm talking like this to you. I want you to know I don't care what happened to Lilly Warren. Neither Nona nor I will ever give you away. Provided you leave us alone."

Bea Cosgrove laughed, and the sound infuriated the man. "I mean it! You harm Nona in any way and I'll pay you back."

"Oh keep still," Bea said. "You're either making all this up or you're so involved in your emotions and sloppy thinking you couldn't see the sun on a bright day. Do you think you could answer a question without beating your chest in defense of Nona?"

"What is it?" George asked humbly.

"Have you told Mollie you suspected me?"

"No. I wouldn't tell her the time of day."

"Mollie and Sillwell are pals again. Why?"

"Why don't you ask Fred? You might have noticed he and I aren't on the best of terms."

"Yesterday Fred and Mollie weren't pals either. Until she came to see him last night. She brought a couple of bottles. I wondered at the time why Fred was so generous, passed it around without too much urging. He wanted the others to sleep while we made this little excursion. To get the ride. Fred must have another little deal on the fire to join up with Mollie again."

"Money," George said. "Look for money somewhere and you'll have the reason for anything Fred does."

"But where would Mollie get money?" Miss Cosgrove stopped. She remembered suddenly what Miguel Oak had said to her in the tunnel that night. "George, where did Mollie sleep in the cave?" As George started to protest, Bea added, "I'm not interested in your morals and I don't mean that the way you think."

George said stiffly, "Mollie slept in the right fork of the cave, and I the other."

"Look," Bea said. "We have a reception committee waiting for us."

George hurried ahead then, went directly to Nona McGuire and took her hand. Bea could hear Nona's soft query, "You all right, George? What did they do to you?"

Miss Cosgrove did not hear his answer. She was more interested in watching the expression on Agnes Pirih's face.

Missouri Pastor Lauds Red Cross Endeavors At Chapter's Meeting

"In an age when we are spending hundreds of millions of dollars to perfect weapons of destruction, we cannot afford to spread ourselves so thinly that we have no time for the important organizations, the ones that will far outlast our own life-times."

Speaking Monday evening at the annual dinner meeting of the Morgan county chapter of the American Red Cross in the Central Christian church, Rev. Raymond McAllister of Webster Groves, Mo., observed that the Red Cross, working hand in hand with the Christian church, builds faith and confidence in this "age of jitters."

"Man must give himself to something bigger than himself, because a man's own welfare is not enough to live on." Rev. McCallister stated sincerely. "And the Red Cross is among the not-too-many organizations ready to help the individual when most of us are willing to delegate our friendship to the Community Chest and forget about the individual."

The speaker declared: "Perhaps the forces of the Red Cross can help make a reality of the long era med of 'new world'—with faith as a basis, service as a motive, friendship as the force, and love as the result."

Rev. McCallister, a member of the
